DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-69 are pending in this communication filed 01/16/01.
2. The Drawings filed 04/02/01 have been reviewed and entered.
3. The IDS filed 01/16/01 has been considered and entered.

Election/Restrictions

4. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-6, drawn to organizing user information according to attribute values, specifying the organized user information, and managing the user information associated with an arbitrary group of users, classified in class 707, subclass 200.
 - II. Claims 7-26 and 50-61, drawn to specifying the user community, forming an administrative domain, and granting administrative privileges, classified in class 707, subclass 100.
 - III. Claims 27-34 and 62-69, drawn to providing user information associated with the user community, prompting the administrator to specify the user community, classified in class 705, subclass 28.
 - IV. Claims 35-43, drawn to a user group specifying component, a domain formation component, an administrative privileges component, and information management component, classified in class 707, subclass 1.
 - V. Claims 44-49, drawn to a database directory, a user community administration tool, a user administration tool, and a first computing unit configured to serve the user community administration tool, classified in class 707, subclass 10.

5. Inventions Group I, Group II, Group III, Group IV, and Group V are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because Groups I and II the combination has separate utility such as organizing the user information according to attribute values, specifying the organized user information, managing the user information associated with an arbitrary group of users, specifying a user community, forming an administrative domain, and granting administrative privileges. Groups III, IV, and V the subcombination has separate utility such as providing user information associated with the user community, prompting the administrator to specify the user community, a user group specifying component, a domain formation component, an administrative privileges component, an information management component, a user community administration tool, a user administration tool, and a first computing unit configured to serve the user community administration tool.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 3624

7. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Applicants' are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
